

Sen. Young Blisters CIA

Sen. Stephen W. Young (D., Ohio) rolled up his sleeves and whacked the CIA soundly today.

Unlike many congressmen, including Republicans, who have soft-pedaled criticism of the Kennedy Administration since the ill-starred Cuban invasion, Sen. Young blistered the top-secret agency and called for retribution.

The peppy senator brained the CIA with such body blows as "weakest link," "fooled," "mismanagement." He pledged to vote to cut its funds.
